1. GIVE IN EXAMPLE OF INTERESTING CONVERSATION THAT YOU HAD.

- What was the conversation about?
- With whom you did this?
- How do you felt about this conversation?

Definition: - Conversation is the way how we share our views, experiences, ideas with each other. Every conversation has its own motive and here I would like to discuss about one of my most (impact able) or memorable conversations.

- It was the time celebration of environmental day in my school.
- I was in intermediate and got opportunity to deliver small speech on environment.
- This was the first time when I got such topic to discuss.
- I was not aware about the topic or one can say even not interested.
- I was not having any ideas that how concept should be elaborated in a good manner.
- Then I discussed all situations with my grandfather.
- He is retired from education department and being a teacher he was best person to seek help.
- The way he cleared topic to me was really impeccable.
- He not only describe the value of good environment at the same time he opened my eyes towards human activities which are spoiling natural environment in drastic way.
- Than he also explained that what efforts should be made to protect environment.
- I was totally mesmerized by his ideas and finally topic got ready.
- His way of giving ideas was easy and unique.
- Not only had I completed my speech even I got to know about one of burning issue.
- I got appreciation from my school authorities and they gave me reward for my views.
- From that day I started contributing my efforts to work for environment.
- I started planting more and more trees.
- I tried to maintain cleanliness in my surroundings.
- After this I have conducted many camps to make people aware about this hazard.

2. TALK ABOUT ANY FILM THAT YOU WATCHED AND LIKED TO SHARE WITH YOUR FRIEND.

- Which is that movie?
- When and where you watched?
- With whom you watched?
- Why you would like to share it?

Definition: - Movies are mirror of society. They depict the society and make people aware about many things. Movies are also known as best source of entertainment. Here I would like to talk about a movie which is my all time favourite.

- The name of movie is Dangal.
- It is a biopic of most renowned female wrestler's Geeta and Babita phogat.
- But I believe story revolved around the life of Mahaveer Phogat who is Father of both sisters.
- Story is based on small village of Haryana.
- Mahaveer Phogat wanted to make his career in wrestling.
- His only dream was to win gold medal for country.
- But due to some circumstances he was failed to do so.
- After that he dreamed to have son and wanted to make him world class wrestler.
- Again destiny has decided something else and better for him as he was only blessed with four daughters and he take it as a curse.
- But one incident changed his perception and he decided to work on his daughters to make them wrestler.
- The task was not easy for both father and daughters.
- As it was believed that wrestling game is dominated by males but changing views of orthodox society was kind of taboo at that time.
- Hard work of father and daughters paid when they won gold medal in commonwealth games.
- Role of Mahaveer Phogat is played by one of my favourite actor Aamir Khan who is also known as Mr. Perfectionist.
- Movie depicts the value of equality strongly promote women empowerment.
- I want to discuss about this movie with one of my best friend.

- Who told you about this place?

Definition: - Education helps us to reach at pinnacle of success. To do study we need tranquil environment. Here I would like to talk about a place where I enjoy my studies more.

- The place is my friend's house.
- He resides in my locality.
- I usually visit there after my school (college) to do study.
- I generate my interest in this place 2 years back.
- When my friend Harsh met on accident and was not able to attend classes for one month due to serious injuries.
- Those days I used to visit him to give notes that he can manage with his studies.
- He is having lots of facilities in his room.
- He has his own laptop with Wi-Fi connection as we can take help from internet while doing studies.
- Most important he has own room.
- I live in joint family and my house is located in market where noise pollution disturb me while concentrating on study.
- I don't have my own space I need to share my room with my siblings and cousins.
- And sometimes they become stubborn and naughty as they are younger than me.
- Harsh's parents are working and even his mother use to help in our studies.
- Harsh himself is very brilliant student and help me in clearing my doubts.
- He is so disciplined and organized that I feel so comfortable in his company.
- Sometimes we plan group studies with other friends also.
- Not only doing study even we do lots of new activities together.
- If we get bore while studies, we can enjoy food/ music which breaks our monotony and help us to become more constructive.

- I have done my studies from _____ which is located in my hometown.
- It is one of most renowned and oldest school of my hometown.
- It is affiliated by (PSEB) (CBSE).
- I was only 4 years old when I was enrolled in this school.
- From the beginning school authority was very strict and disciplined which help students to become more organized in their life.
- Uniform was really very attractive and need to be maintained properly.
- School was located in the centre of town and has big multistory building.
- It was divided in different sections according to wings and classes.
- Like primary/middle and high school.
- Play school to primary wings are in ground floor.
- Second floor was used to set classes till middle school.
- Upper floor were used for higher classes and even library, science laboratory was there.
- There were lots of facilities provided to students regarding sports and extracurricular activities.
- There was a big auditorium where students get opportunity to perform on annual day functions.
- School was surrounded by big play ground.
- It was compulsory for every student to participate in any game
- There were two gates for entry and exit.
- School was having its own transportation.
- As children were not allowed to use their own vehicles, only bicycles were allowed.
- Teachers were well educated and much experienced.

- It is a school for small kids known a kinder Garden.
- It is newly built in my hometown but in very small time it gained popularity.
- It is known as the Little Wonder Play School.
- Last year I visited there with one of my uncle for his son's admission.
- Initially I was not ready to visit there but my uncle insisted me a lot.
- When I entered the gate a big lawn and garden was there.
- Garden was filled with colourful seasonal flowers and there many swings were installed.
- Building was huge and even count of students was high.
- There were around 10 rooms for young children where they attend their regular classes.
- All classes were painted with different theme of colours.
- Like I saw theme of pink colour and things which are usually in pink colours were painted on walls.
- Even furniture was also in shape of pink things like toy/fashion accessories and so on.
- In another class theme was tradition/ culture and religion.
- The walls of class were covered with different portraits of lords, people who were in different dresses of different regions.
- Courtyard was displaying things like animals/fruits and flowers.
- Every inch of school walls have some story or knowledgeable things.
- I was really mesmerized by this unique idea.
- In the centre of building ceiling was covered with colourful glasses.

- Last year I visited to my cousin to meet him.
- As I was having only few days to spend with him so I made plan accordingly.
- On these days my cousin was busy to organize arrangements of one of his best friend marriage.
- I used to participate with him that we can spend time together.
- Marriage day he insisted me to join him as I was not invited so I felt little hesitated.
- But at last I got ready for the occasion.
- When we reached the venue I got mesmerized by the lavish arrangements.
- I thought that evening is going to be very enjoyable and memorable.
- As we were sitting and enjoying snacks my cousin got call from his friend and he left me there only.
- I thought he will be back soon.
- Then I started observing the environment and ambience.
- Soon I got bored I called my cousin but he was not responding.
- I noticed people surrounding were staring me and they were curious from which side I am from whether from groom side or from bride.
- I was feeling like unfitted or alien there.
- I also tried to pass my time with mobile phone but soon I got drilled.
- Everybody in this ceremony was with their companions I was only alone there.
- Even I did not recognize a single person.
- I was in embarrassing situation.
- I made a decision to leave party.

- It is the industry of “Swaraj Tractor”.
- That is located in outskirts of my hometown.
- Industry is located here from last many decades.
- It is spread over in area of many acres.
- Due to this industry our hometown is famed all over the world.
- People of my hometown are getting employment due to this industry.
- Even people from nearby places are migrating to this place for employment purpose.
- This has generated revenue for this place.
- Tractor is very useful in farming work.
- So in country like India which is dependent on agriculture industry of tractor is like blessing.
- I am also from farmer family and we are also having same brand of tractor.
- Swaraj tractors are exported worldwide like in countries Africa/Switzerland/ Australia/ New Zealand and so on.
- Last year I got opportunity to visit this industry with one of cousin who is working here from last 7 years.
- In the front of gate of factory huge model of tractor is displayed and it fascinates outsiders.
- As it was the time of exhibition and industry was celebrating their 30 years of establishment.
- There I got chance to know more about this product.
- From inside factory is really huge big machines are kept which are used to manufacture unit.
- One cannot imagine that factory could be spread in a big area many sheds are there for different tractor.

- Last year I participated in youth festival which is organized every year in my hometown from local authority.
- I was part of this as a solo dancer.
- I am interesting in dancing from my childhood.
- But never got opportunity to display my talent.
- For this my mother motivated me as one of my friends participated in this event and won this.
- Credit goes to my mother without her motivation it was impossible to gather courage to take part in this competition.
- 15 days before I started practicing and I “Burnt Midnight Oil” to win this.
- After I celebrated my victory with my friends and family.
- We went to one of renowned restaurant and enjoyed there.
- We enjoyed buffet there where around 25 dishes served with sweet dishes.
- One my favourite cuisine Italian was also part of this menu.
- Music band of this restaurant is also famous for their live music.
- All young and old members enjoyed dancing over there and I captured all moments to recall in future.
- My friends appreciated my performance.
- I was really happy that day.
- After the party I also got some surprise gifts.
- One of them was a collage which was gifted by my best friend.
- All photographs were of my performance day were framed in an innovative way.
- I was really mesmerized about this idea, I hugged him tightly and we both got emotional at that time.

14. DESCRIBE A SITUATION WHEN YOU GOT ANY ADVICE REGARDING YOUR WORK/STUDY.

- When it happened?
- Who gave you advice?
- How advice benefited you?

Definition: - Man is social animal lives in society where everybody is depended on each other. So taking suggestion from others to make any decision is very common. Here I would like to discuss about the situation when I took advice and it really proved worthy for me.

- It was time of my matriculation result.
- I passed my high school with flying colours.
- And I have lots of career options to choose.
- I was very excited and looking forward for better opportunities.
- But it was not as easy as I was expecting.
- I was getting lots of ideas and suggestions from here and there.
- These days one of my cousins visited us and he told me to choose a stream in which I am interested.
- He said doing something without interest would be tough even One cannot perform well.
- So I took his advice as final call and decided to choose commerce subject for my future.
- Mathematics is always one of my favourite subjects and doing something related to this had made my experience more enjoyable.
- In my intermediate I really got good marks and now I am planning to go abroad for my future studies.
- All credit goes to my cousin who saved me in a situation where I was totally blanked.
- Even he suggested me to go abroad for further studies.
- He advised me to continue my studies in Canada as it is one of best country for education and after getting international exposure I can participate in the development of my own country.
- As now I have started my journey towards my goals so there is long way to go but I will always give preference to my cousin for making important decision of my life.

- How was your experience?
- Whom you met?
- What do you felt about a situation?

Definition: - People go through many people in their day to day life. And sometimes some people put great impact in our personality. Here I would like to talk about one of my uncle who visited last year and I met him first time.

- Last year in the month of March one of my maternal uncle visited to India from Canada after 15 years.
- It was the celebration time for whole family.
- And to mark this occasion my uncle gave huge party where his kith and kin were invited.
- I was also excited to meet him.
- I attended this party with my parents.
- When I reached there I saw my uncle was standing at entrance gate and giving warm welcome to everybody.
- This shows his humble nature.
- When I met him it seemed that we know each other from a long time.
- He hugged me tightly and started talking about my future plans.
- Mean while my aunt came to us and I got surprised when I got to know about that she is a French lady.
- She was in traditional Punjab attire and looking so graceful.
- My uncle is blessed with two kids both are very cute and adorable.
- As I belong to countryside area so most of my family members are not comfortable with English language.
- They were very much curious to know about my uncle's family but due to language barrier they were restricted.
- But some old ladies of family trying to talk with my aunt.
- They were using sign language and trying their best to make aunt understand.
- And this was the surprising moment for everybody when my aunt started her conversation in Punjabi language.
- Everybody was stunned and this was unbelievable for them.
- Even their both of kids have good command over like Punjabi/ English/ French.

Tajinder's English Classes®

Your Dream-Our Passion

- I was also astonished by this family.
- As people nowadays give less preference to their native language and they show of their language skill by having good grip on other languages.
- But both of my uncle and aunt who are from different culture not only learned each other language even they are trying hard to keep it alive in upcoming generation also.
- Meeting this family was total pleasure before this I never got fascinated by anyone as much.
- I am looking forward to meet them again.
