

Television is a great source of information and entertainment.
Do you think its advantages outweigh disadvantages?

Vocabulary:

Of late, a drastic change in the world of new gadgets but television existence is still witnessed. Some avowedly embrace that such technical tool ~~can~~ keep its name forever in rendering global infotainment.

While others controversed due to its detrimental results. Though I minded uphold that this device has monopoly and inevitable role.

Such technological tool is known for Worldwide knowledge instantaneously. To exemplify, around the clock news channels run which not only spread awareness in vernacular ~~language~~ but also in Mandarin bind nooks and corner news. Resultantly, such gadget works as a thread between viewers and activities.

~~Such~~ this gizmo has popularity in multiple genres which covers entertainment and new trends. To quote an instance movies, daily soaps, commercial have brought a new revolution. Ergo, each age group feel enormously attached with these programs and people come to know myriad cultural and social taboos. new societies.

television has spoiled
children and made them couch potato with the result of this kids are deprived of their studies and it effects on their eyesight.

However, I am ~~sure~~ strongly convinced that this scientific advancement has proven to be

↓
highly knowledgeable
for learners. Channels
like Discovery, History
Fox, give exposure

to kids and such channels break
barriers of the gaps
and equally helpful
in future prediction

In an inference
despite television one can not escape himself from obscene content of television but I am sure that if parents
make certain regimes
then definitely quality shows would be in reach of their wards
as this technology is a shorter way to upgrade one.
