

→ The fact of getting and achieving wealth, respect and fame means success to me.

- Here I would like to talk about a shopping mall which is located in my hometown.
- It was inaugurated last year during the occasion of New year.
- In very short period it earned popularity.
- Due to this shopping mall life of people has been changed in various ways.
- Way of shopping has changed.
- People get aware about many brands not only to national brand even about international.
- There are lots of outlets of different brands.
- This mall is facilitated with modern technology.
- It is triple storey building consist 4 floors.
- Basement is used for parking where one time 500 cars can be parked.
- Rest of floors occupied with different amenities and shops.

- First floor one can shop for household and grocery.
- Second floor is filled with clothing / accessories / footwear brands.
- Last two floors are totally for recreational activities.
- Like this is fun zone for young kids.
- PVR Cinema for movie lovers.
- Many restaurants which serve cuisine from world wide located here.
- Disco theatre and a conference hall is also there.
- As it is equipped with modern technology.
- Escalators and elevators are there.
- Good lighting system and building is fully air conditioned.
- One can enjoy comfortably in any season.
- So visit to this place was kind of pleasure for me.
- Even this shopping mall has provide employment to many.

"Describe an educational tour.

- When you did this tour?
- Where you went?
- What kind of knowledge you got?
- One can enhance knowledge and information in various ways and during the period of my education I had done many educational tours and here I would like to talk about one - - -
- When I was in 8th standard my school organised educational trip to a Zoo.
- Zoo was located in Chandigarh city known as Chattrabed Zoo.
- From my hometown it took 2 hours to reach there and school transport took us there.
- All section of 8th class was part of this tour even team of 10 teachers were with us.
- When we reached there teachers segregated us in the different groups.
- We all were very excited and even our teachers collected many knowledgeable things to share while tour.
- Even we carried small notebooks to write information.

- Zoo is an artificial home for different kind of animals, birds, reptiles.
- It is a big area fenced by wires, trenches so animal can not run away or cause any damage to humans.
- Normally there are different sections for different species.
- First section where we visited was wild.
- We observe wild species over there like Bengal tiger/ White tiger/ Lion / Panther / Hyena / Jaguar / Bear and so on.
- I also got to know that Lion is also known as King of jungle.
- Tiger is National animal of country and Jaguar is one of endangered species.
- All these were kept in special cells and they were kept in distance from the viewers.
- Then we moved to reptile section where many type of snakes were kept and first time I saw huge python which was kept in glass cage.
- Then we moved for a bird sanctuary where big pond was filled with water and different species of birds were there. like peacock/ parrots/ pigeon/ magpie/ swans/ ducks and so on.
- Then we took small lunch break and after that we continued with the tour.
- Last section we went where we observe some innocent and harmful wild animals like monkeys/ Apes/ Deers/ Elephant.
- I also observe some water species like big crocodiles/ turtles.
- It took around 6 hours to complete the tour.
- When we were back to home we were talking about animals only.
- Each and every student enjoyed the trip and we grasped many interesting facts about wild life which I still remember.
- I think these kind of tours help children to adapt knowledge in very unique way.

Interesting Animal

- Human and animals sharing their habitats from ages. Animals can categorize in three categories like wild | pets | domestic. Here I would like to discuss about my pet (animal) dog.
- Pets are best companion of humans.
- Pets always offer us everything they have without asking for anything in return.
- Nowadays people treat their pets as family members.
- This is how the relationship between pets evolving.
- I adopted my pet Bushar when he was a little baby.
- Bushar came in like a blessing for our family.
- He belongs from the breed of Labrador.
- He is black in colour.
- He came in as puppy with his cute little paws and eyes.
- When he grew up he learned various tricks.
- We trained him to follow our instructions.
- Bushar love to play with all family members.
- Bushar loved it and wagged his tail in excitement.
- Dogs are very faithful animal.
- It has sharp mind and strong sense of hearing / smelling the things.
- My pet is also helpful in reducing stress, anxiety and depression.
- I think dogs are best pets they are so loyal to their master.
- Dogs always give security to the owner day and night.
- Every year we use to celebrate his birthday.
- He always join me for morning evening walk.
- He is active and cute like small kid.
- Bushar has been with us through thick and thin and we will forever be indebted to him for his loyalty.
- I also learned that how this faithful animal always worked for our happiness and safety.

" Describe a time when you travelled by public transport.

- When and where you travelled?
- Explain your experience with public transport?

→ People use different mode of transportation to travel. Most reliable source is public transport which is most convenient/popular and pocket friendly also. Here I would like to talk about a journey which I did through public transport.

→ Last year we went to Shimla for vacations.

→ It was family tour we were around 15 members.

→ So we decided to make this journey by public transport.

→ All family members were excited and all made so many plans to make this holidays memorable.

→ I arranged digital camera to capture moments.

→ And most exciting part of this vacation was that we choose heritage train to travel Shimla.

→ We boarded this train from Kalka station.

→ Train is around 100 yrs old and established by Britishers.

→ It is also known as toy train and covers the distance of around 96 km from Kalka station to Shimla hills.

→ The journey by the toy train was quite thrilling.

→ It passes from 20 stations.

→ The toy train passes through the picturesque mountains and valleys, beautiful oaks and pine trees series of tunnels and bridges and few small streams and waterfalls.

→ It has 102 tunnels and 864 bridges.

→ Train attracts many tourists and superb engineering leaves them stunned.

→ It's not only a wonderful toy train journey through breath taking Himalayas but also a heritage ride.

→ It took around 5 hours to reach our destination.

→ This travel was one of most enjoyable journeys.

→ Train was so slow and we captured nature in Camera.

→ This train is also a lifeline of locals.

→ The awesome journey came to an end around 11 am.

→ The remarkable experience of the Kalka-Shimla toy train ride was indeed a great way to start our Shimla tour.

1) Describe a uniform that you wear (School / N.I.K).

→ Having dress code is very common in educational institutes.
→ nowadays professional organisations made it compulsory for their employees. Here I would like to talk about my uniform which I used to wear in my school days.

- I did my studies from _____
- It is one of most renowned school of my hometown.
- School is famous for its discipline and strict rules.
- From my 1st class to High school I completed my study there.
- In my school days uniform wearing was important for every student.
- It was having very unique design and I always fascinated by it.
- My uniform was combination of colours.
- Bottom or pant was in Navy blue colour, shirt was of white colour and black leather shoes were compulsory.
- Along with this tie was there which was in two colour stripe blue and white.
- We also need to wear batch in which school building and name of school was displayed.
- Belt was also there which was having huge buckle

- with the same design of batch.
- Students looks very graceful in this uniform.
- Neat and clean uniform was first priority of school.
- Students who are found without uniform pattern were fined and sometime punished also.
- Even my mother was very possessive about my uniform and she used to maintained it.
- Uniform give us unique identity and make us more organised.
- It eradicate discrimination or brings the equality among all students.
- It also help to give information that one belongs to any reputed organisation.
- I think uniform wearing should be compulsory in all institutions of education till nursery to higher education.

Q) Describe a job that you would not like to do in future.

→ Which is that job?

→ How you got to know about it?

→ Why it is not your favourite?

D) People do various kind of work to run their livelihood. Some choose jobs as per their choices and some do jobs as per their needs. If I talk about myself being a student I don't have experience of many jobs but here I would like to talk about a job of callcenter which I would never prefer in future.

→ Last year during the period of my vacations I did job in call center.

→ One of my friend is working there and he suggested me to join there just to gain experience.

→ I got excited and money attracted me a lot because they offered me 10,000/- monthly.

→ Being a student I am dependent on my parents for financial support.

→ So when I got offer of 10,000 I got tempted.

→ I worked there for one month.

→ I enjoyed initial days there, but it got tough when my shift was changed after 8 days.

- It was a big call centre of communication unit.
- Working in graveyard shift was challenging for me.
- If one works in call centre need to adjust schedule.
- One need to work at night and sleep during the day.
- And sleeping in day hours is frustrating.
- It also effects on eating schedules.
- Which can lead to many health problems.
- It is one of most stressful jobs.
- I was stucked with language problem also.
- I need to show presence of mind and during night hours one can feel lethargic/dizzy.
- Even team members change regularly.
- I was left with no social life.
- My friends and parents were upset of my odd behaviour and timetable.
- So I have very negative experience with this job and I would never do it again.
- End of the time I completed one month there as per conditions and left the job.
- I felt happy after getting back to my daily schedule.

Describe a person who is in news and you want to meet.

D) People advise many personalities in their life.
These persons fascinate other by their unique qualities or by their work. Here I would like to talk about one of personality who is in news nowadays.

- She is Lakshmi Aggarwal who is acid victim.
- Recent a movie has released on her life known as "Chopak".
- It can also consider as her Biopic.
- After a long a movie has released which put great impact on society.
- Lakshmi is busy nowadays promoting her movie, Lakshmi and her movie has became most discussed issue.
- I got to know about her struggle and her fight against acid attacks.
- I watch her interview and got emotional.
- She was only 15yrs old when proposed by a man who was 32yrs old for marriage.
- Refusal of her changed her life drastically.
- That man was mentally sick and didn't take this, after he ended with acid attack.

- It not only changed physical appearance of Lakshmi even her dreams were burnt.
- She was gone through seven surgeries and survived hardly.
- Not only this after recovering from her wounds society was changed they were not accepting her.
- People started her targeting for her appearance and some mentally ill blamed her for this situation.
- All these situation made her strong enough that she not only bring change for herself even she fought against the selling of acid.
- I think she is best example of women empowerment and a whistle blower.
- If she can do it than anyone can bring change in society only need to keep strong determination and courage.
- Lead role is played by Deepika Padukone and I can say she has done justified with the character.
- I wish that I could meet Lakshmi one day.
- She is inspiration for many like me.
- May God bless her.

→ This was most happiest day of my life.
→ I must say that I am blessed with loving friends and family who really cares about me.
→ Later I uploaded many pictures of this event on social media where I got lots of likes and compliments.

Q) Describe happiest day you had.
→ Which is that day?
→ What occasion made it happy?
→ How you felt about this event?

D) Happy days are always memorable for us. Different occasions we celebrate and gather memories. Here I would like to talk about one of most happiest day of my life.
→ It was the time of last year when I celebrated my (18th / 21st / 25th) birthday.
→ I can say that I was not in the mood of celebration but all my friends planned surprise party for me.
→ The day before my birthday my friends started asking me about my plans and celebration.
→ I refused to celebrate even this time I want to keep myself away from pomp and show.

→ But the day started with great bang.
→ I got surprise cake at morning from my family.
→ I cut my birthday cake on bed.
→ I got one of most expensive gift that was two wheeler. (Bike / Scooter).
→ It was my dream bike and was in my favourite colour.
→ When I saw it I got mesmerised and took ride on it with my mother.
→ After that at evening time I got call from my parents and they told me to meet near by restaurant.
→ I got idea they made dinner plan.
→ When I reached there I found no one and got annoyed than one of my friend visited and took me to the Hall blind folded.
→ I was amazed by his behaviour.
→ Hall was in downstair we I entered I listen Loud wishings / hooting and applauds of many people.
→ I opened my blind fold and got surprised all my family members / close friends were there.
→ Hall was decorated full and I saw huge cake in centre of hall.
→ I was laughing and got emotional at the same time.
→ There was arrangement of DJ music and after cake cutting ceremony Party was started.
→ I received many gifts and I was star of this party.
→ And I got to know that party was organised by my friends even my family was awared about it.
→ I felt happy and thanked my friends for wonder birthday.

1/A person who taught you something important.

- What you learnt?
- Who taught you?
- How was your experience?

D → life is learning process each and every day we learn new things. Here I would like to talk about a person who taught me two wheeler riding last year.

- Last year on my birthday I got two wheeler scooter / Bike as a gift from my parents.
- I really got excited and I was in dire need of it.
- But situation turns hard when I started learning it.
- Initially I was very confident that I would learn it by my own, but it was not easy as I imagined.
- Then my elder brother show interest and started giving me training of riding.
- Every evening around two hour we used to spent on it.
- I must say he is a good teacher.
- He was very calm and composed at the time of training never shouted or argued on me.

- He not only taught me riding even he helped me to get my driving license.
- He also aware me about many common rules like to wear helmets / Try to keep patient always follow traffic rules / never jump signals.
- And most important avoid road rages.
- These lessons helped me a lot to be a good rider.
- Now I have become more independent and confident.
- I am looking forward to learn driving nowadays and again my teacher would be my brother only. Even he has promised me
- I can give credit to my brother due to his efforts or teaching qualities I learnt something new and beneficial.
- It took only 15 days to be perfect but still if I do any mistake my brother use to correct me.

→ Describe health article.

- ⇒ Nowadays health has become most ignored aspect of life. Due to which people are suffering from various diseases. As said health is wealth so one should always concentrate on health. Last Sunday I read a magazine known as Brunch which is published (with newspaper) Hindustan Times.
- Topic of magazine was healthy lifestyle.
 - Which fascinated me in first look.
 - Even pictures were very excited and eye catching that's why I found it interesting.
 - Article was about value of food and physical activities.
 - Healthy food is important for one to enjoy health.
 - Healthy food contains combination of different nutritious compounds like Vitamins | Proteins | Fibre | minerals.
 - Green vegetables are really fulfill our requirement of Vitamins.
 - Vegetables, different grains and pulses should be always in our regular meal.
 - One should have small portions of food rather than having full stomach at once time.
 - Fibre is one of most important thing to digest food so salad is full of fibre and boost our digestion.
 - Fruits and dry fruits also help us to rejuvenate health.
 - Seasonable fruits are source of vitamins like V-C | A | K / antioxidant / minerals.
 - Dry fruits have their own qualities which enhance our immunity.
 - Even involving ourselves in physical activities help to enjoy healthy life.
 - People always give excuse of having busy schedule but in this article small tricks were suggested to curb this problem.
 - Even one should find time for meditation or Yoga.
 - People should involve themselves in outdoor games and they should spend less time on their gadgets which has made them couch potatoes / mouse potatoes.
 - I have started following this small things in my life and I hope this will benefit me.
 - As I am not fond of reading but this article has proved worthy for me and nowadays I started sharing these information to my dear ones -- that they can also leads to healthy lifestyle.

"Describe a person who has apologized you.

→ Who is that person?

→ Why he/she apologized you?

→ How you felt about this situation?

D→ Man is social animal lives in society where everybody is dependent on each other. Well we follows many social rules here. One of them is regretting on our mistakes. Here I would like to share about a situation where one of my best friend apologized me.

- Last year during the period of summers one of my friend made a trip to Manali with his cousins.
- He also invited me but due to some reasons I was not part of this journey.
- He asked me to lend him my digital camera.
- As his one cousin was going abroad for his further studies and he wanted to make this journey memorable.
- To capture special moments he borrowed camera.
- I lent him without any second thought.
- Which brought huge smile on his face.
- After two weeks he returned my camera.
- And he gave me small treat in nearby coffee house.

→ Even he bought key chains for me as a souvenir from Shimla.

→ After a month my sister's birthday was approaching and I was planning for surprise party.

- I also checked my camera but shocked when its clicking button was not working properly.
- I tried to make it working but all was vain.
- Then I realize that my friend did something wrong with my device.
- I called him and asked about this.
- Initially he refused but end of time felt sorry.
- I was really annoyed about the situations.
- He visited me and got ready to pay for loss.
- I told him that he should informed me before.
- And I was also felt cheated somewhere.
- But we were having very good relations from many years and due to this I don't want to spoil it.
- End of the time he paid and my gadget got repaired.
- I was happy at that moment.
- This was the situation when my friend felt sorry to me and I forgave him.

- 1) Talk about recent development that improved local life.
 - 2) Talk about a change that can improve your local area.
 - 3) Talk about crowded place.
- D) India is developing country. Each and every day lots of development take place to improve people's life. Here I would like to talk about a shopping mall which has changed the way of shopping of my hometown ---
- Last year one of biggest shopping mall of my district inaugurated in my hometown.
 - The name of mall is (We are Punjab) VR Punjab.
 - Within short span it has become popular place.
 - It is spread in many acres.
 - It is really attractive it is surrounded by green lawns and huge palm trees.
 - It is multistorey building.
 - Ground floor is used for parking where almost more than 500 cars can parked.
 - Rest of three floors are occupied by outlets of different brands.
 - I can say it is a place where one can found everything under one roof like Needle to Anchor.
 - First floor is for grocery, household items and for electronics.
 - Reliance / Big Bazaar are also part of this shopping mall.
- Second floor is for various brands of clothing / footwear / make up and for accessories.

→ Brands like Zara / H & M / Sketches / Life style / Puma / Levis / Lakme / Max / Friends.

→ Third floor is for restaurants / fun zone and PVR Cinema.

→ It is totally dedicated for entertainment of all age groups.

→ Mall is equipped with modern facilities like escalators / elevators / Benches / air conditioning and good light systems.

→ This has changed the way of shopping.

→ Due to mall shopping has become fun and one can spend / enjoy quality time with their near ones.

→ People got aware of many brands they become brand conscious.

→ Shopping has become hassle free for them now they don't need to travel far away to get branded and quality worthy products.

→ Not only this it has indicated the economic development of place.

→ People are getting employment at their own place and even migrants get good opportunities here.

→ I must say this shopping mall can consider as one of biggest development of my hometown.

① Describe an experience you had as a member of team.

- What was the occasion?
- How you prepared?
- How was your experience?

D) → Man is social animal lives in society where everybody is dependent on each other and doing work in groups is very common. Here I would like to talk about an experience where I performed as a team member.

- When I was in my Intermediate during the period of environmental day we got a project and responsibility of a speech.
- We were four members in a team and I leaded my team at that time.
- I was happy at the same time nervous too.
- It was big opportunity to prove my ability and skills.
- We got only a week to prepare.
- All members of team were active and full of ideas.
- We share our views that nuclear plan to work accordingly.

- Being a leader I was having lots of responsibilities
- We made a project on Hazards of rain/droughts.
- We also took help from internet.
- In those days I was not facilitated with smartphone and I had to visit cyber cafe to complete my work.
- Final day when we displayed our project it was the best one.
- Not only we got appreciation for this even we won first prize for this.
- Next day our team and project photo was published in newspaper.
- I was at cloud nine and it was happiest day of my life.
- As a team-member or captain I made proud my teachers even after my this achievement my parents were very glad.
- This experience was really worthy for me even credit goes to my team members who did efforts equally to make this victory possible.
- I learnt patience/good sportsmanship/ coordination and it has boosted my confidence also.
- Due to this I can say I have good quality of a leader and I am looking forward another opportunity where I can prove it again.

- Here I would like to talk about a small business which is run by my cousin and it is a business of Bakery.
 - He started this business two years back
 - He is only 24 yrs old and has become entrepreneur.
 - He was not good in his studies and he always interested to run his own business.
 - Then after completing his graduation he joined course of baking in near by institute.
 - Course was of 6 months and he completed it with flying colours.
 - Even he got opportunity to work with one of renowned hotel of city.
 - But he refused and opened his own Bakery.
 - He is blessed enough he got support from his family.
 - He was not financially strong on those days but he never make it excuse.
 - He started his shop in the premises of his resident.
 - Even he was not having enough money to hire assistance.
- I → Here his family helped him both his sister and mother started assisting him.
- And I remember those days also when he used to deliver his products on bicycle because he can't afford transportation.
- He has "burnt midnight oil" to make this business possible.
- Not only he earn his family support him to attain successful business.
- It is a small scale business but his products are very popular.
- He is doing his work with dedication and customer satisfaction is his only motto.
- (written)* Due to his good business skills and hard work business is growing with "leaps and bounds". I hope in future he will reach at pinnacle of success.
- Next year he is planning to open his Bakery in a local market where he can reach to many customers.
- It is also first bakery of my hometown which started home delivery.
- Even name is very unique of