REGULATORY BODY

Intro.

Monitoring is required everywhere for letting everything alone smoothly. As Television programs are common hence there should be acceptance of regulatory body on them.

Nutshell

We sum up; if personally perceive that quality of endorsements can surely be maintained by censor board so they must interfere on television programmes.

Usually advertisements exhibit their impact on the minds of the consumers, not their demand for their needs. So what extent do you agree/disagree with this opinion?

Advertisements are mirror of the product.
But still,

These are not so powerful that they can lure customers. Never fall into oily tongue of advertisements.

People like to save money and spend on child's education rather to buy unnecessary products.

Furthermore consumed called a planner to him the budget matters if a person has money for hush-back he will not buy sadar or luxury.

Advertisements can provide usages but not make him hypnotized if they are be fooled by advertisements

However, people believe advertisements they should be the consumer psychology body on advertising. People follow celebrities. They want to look like them and become affluent.
